

Welcome to Access Investigations

Access Investigations is a modern private detective and private investigator agency ideally situated in the UK capital, London. Our detective agency provides our clients with access to our extensive network of professional private detectives and private investigators and ensures comprehensive coverage across London, England, UK & Europe. If you need to find missing persons, buy surveillance equipment, conduct background checks or hire process servers we can help.

At Access Investigations we pride ourselves on setting the benchmark standard for others to follow and we adhere to a strict code of ethics. Each investigator, detective, enquiry agent and researcher retained by our agency undertake all investigations both nationally and internationally utilizing professional, discreet and legal methods. Our comprehensively trained and highly motivated investigators understand the need for confidentiality and would appreciate the opportunity to discuss which of our extensive portfolio of services is of interest to you.

You will find our staff to be both professional and sympathetic.